They are about to organize a "Cotton Association" in Memphis. Two of these associations are already in operation, one in New York and the other in New Or-leans. They are simply "rings" concoct-ed in the interests of speculators. Their design is to control the market, and by dealing in "intures" fix the prices of crops one or two years ahead. Of course, crops one or two years ahead. Of course, the planter is the victim, since he pledges his crop in advance for a sum which, when his crop is gathered, may, and in all probability will, be lower than that interests incomprised that the different interests into which the commercial world is divided should form associations looking to their own welfare. But we submit that white the some steps is aken to organization of "rings" is going on in the commercial world, there should be some steps is ken to organize "rings" in the amount adopted in the committee of the whole appropriating there is a change in affairs soon on the committee of the whole appropriating the borders.

Yeas—Ames, Anthony, Biair, Cole, Coper, Corbett, Davis (West Virgonia), Edmunds, Ferry (Michigan), Einagan, Frelinghuysen, Hamilton (Maryland), Johnson, Kellegg, Kelly, Senator Trumbull replied that there was no lack of competent witnesses on the subject; he cited George William Curitse, as an influential friend of the administration, and read at length from the testimony of ex-Secretary Cov as to civil service abuses, specifying, and probably the incommendations to office by members of congress.
